

Dear WWEP Members and Friends:

Please join us for our first 2011 luncheon on Thursday, March 3, 11:30 am at the Great Lakes WATER Institute, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. We will be attending one of the UWM School of Freshwater Sciences Anchor Watch Seminars as a group. The seminar topic is Waterborne Disease and Climate Change, presented by Dr. Sandra McLellan, Associate Scientist. Anchor Watch is a seminar series that features recent research presented by scientists and professionals from UWM and beyond. The seminars are geared towards a scientific audience, but are open to the public. Refer to the following link for additional information:
<http://www.glwi.uwm.edu/features/events/anchor.php>

Please RSVP no later than Monday, February 28 to Angela Baran at angie.baran@yahoo.com

Luncheon Meeting Location: Great Lakes Water Institute
Ballroom
600 E. Greenfield Avenue
Milwaukee, WI
(414) 382-1700

Parking: Lot is on the north side of the building or street parking. Check-in at front desk with security, let them know you are there for the Anchor Watch Seminar. Directions: <http://www.glwi.uwm.edu/features/contact/>

Time: Registration at 11:30 am. The formal presentation begins at noon. Please arrive at 11:30 am for registration (reminder annual dues are $35) and to allow time for distributing our lunch. Others will be attending this seminar so please arrive before the presentation begins to minimize disruption to the program. Due to this arrangement we will not be holding our usual short business meeting, but there will be time for networking/registration before and after the program.

Cost: $10 For members and students, $25 For non-members
Payable at the meeting to Women Environmental Professionals.

We will offer assorted boxed deli-style sandwiches and water for lunch. Please let Angela know in advance if there is any special dietary preference and we will do our best to accommodate. Hope to see you there for this great speaker and topic, and thank you in advance to the WATER Institute for making it possible to join one of their Anchor Watch Seminars!
